CHAPTER I
INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of the Study

English is one of the languages to interact which has an important role in the world. In global era we should try to be able to speak English to make the way for us a good relationship with other countries in the world for mastering the science, technology, and culture in the world. By mastering English, it is easier for us to face the competition with other countries.

In Indonesia, studying English is not a new thing of junior high school before because English is taught in elementary school up to senior high school. But the fact more students in Indonesia generally found difficulties, boredom, and confusing in English as foreign language because it is not their mother tongue so they do not feel easy for learning and also remember all the word in English.

The language skill has two parts of language function, namely oral and written English as a means of communication. In the first part speaking and listening is oral language, and the first part reading and writing is a written language. In learning English writing one in the most difficulties in learning English.

Writing is of fundamental importance to learning, to development of the person in each learner, and to success in the educational system, especially in learning English. Johnstonr et.al in Javed et.al (2013: 130) state that Writing is the one of the basic skills of the English language. In the process of writing, writing is the primary basis upon which our work, our learning, to developing in learning process. Writing means also, process to product our mind into word. Tarigan in Faisal (2013:240) writing is of the language skill which is used to communicate in directly, without having face to face with other people. Therefore writer should explore her mind to find new idea that make sentence meaningful. The idea will be into a word, a sentence, a paragraph and text. In writing there are some texts such as descriptive text, narrative text, and recount text.

Descriptive text is that domain of writing that develops images through the use of precise sensory word and phrases, and through devices such as metaphor, and the sound of word. The term descriptive text rightly makes us think wonderful poetry, of vivid story paragraph that help us see settings of forests or seascapes or city streets. According to Ellis et.al in Hadyan (2013:59), descriptive text is considered as the simplest and easiest writing form compared to narrative, recount, or procedure, in addition, it allows students to share interested impressions of a person, a place, or an object surrounding them (Troyka in Hadyan: 2013). Meanwhile, the writers should be able make the readers interested with the stories. The researcher chooses descriptive text in her research because the descriptive text is one of texts that should be mastered by students at first grade junior high school.

Based on observation done by the researcher with English teachers of the first grade SMP Muhammadiyah 3 Jetis, there are many students that have difficulties in writing. Many students have difficulty to explore their idea and to bunch the word into sentence well. In addition, the students are still confused about grammar, vocabulary, and language use although they have been already in junior high school. Therefore, the students' motivation to write is poor.

There are some strategies in teaching writing. The researcher chose is portfolio. Portfolio is a systematic collection of student work and related material that depicts a student activities, accomplishment, and achievement in one or more school subject. According to O’Malley & Valdez Pierce (1999), Portfolio is systematic collection and evaluation of student work measured against predetermined scoring criteria, such as scoring guides, rubrics, checklist, or rating scale. So it can be concluded that Portfolio is strategies in writing is can help the students to brainstorm their idea, help the students explore their idea become a text or writing, reviewing the draft of the texts.

In the descriptive text through by portfolio the students should make describe which a topic home and family portfolio. The students should discover their idea become interesting story. So, in learning descriptive text with portfolio the students make a paragraph descriptive text. The students can explore brainstorming their idea to their paragraph.

The result of this research show that the students who are taught using portfolio have better than those who are taught by using direct instruction
1.2. Limitation of the Problem
